GENERAL HOOD DEAD.

TWO OF HIS DAUGHTERS ALSO STRICKEN WITH FEVER.

Mobile Quarantines New Orleans--- Unveiling of Custer Monument.

NEW ORLEANS, August 30.—Gen. J. B. Hood died at 4 o'clock this morning. It is believed that his daughter Lydia will not recover. Edith is also very sick.

General Hood had hopes of recovery to the last. Perceiving slight favorable symptoms he said to Dr. Beniss, "We may yet dislodge the enemy." As measures of precaution, none of the military associations to which General Hood belonged were invited to his funeral. He was buried this afternoon. General Hood leaves eleven children. The eldest is ten years and the youngest (twins) three weeks old. His physical condition had been bad for some time past, caused, it is alleged, by anxiety arising from financial reverses, and the terrible blow he received in the death of his wife. The General leaves manuscript of the history of the war, which he intended to have published this fall.

MOBILE, August 30.—Mobile quarantines New Orleans on and after twelve o'clock to-morrow night. This port remains perfectly free from yellow fever.

UNVEILING CUSTER MONUMENE.

WEST POINT, August 30.—A large attendance were here to-day to witness the ceremonies of the Custer monument. Algernon S. Sullivan delivered the presentation address and General Schofield the address of acceptance. The orator of the day was General N. P. Banks.

Accident at Reidsville.

Special to the News.

GREENSBORO, August 30.—Joe Glenn, of this place, had a leg broken while at Reidsville yesterday.

Yellow Fever.

MEMPHIS, August 30.—There was nine new cases reported this morning, two white and seven colored. There have been six interments since last night, among the number are John P. Hoffman, a member of the firm of Eitchell & Hoffman, Eugenia Baggiano, a sister-in-law of L. Podosta, Frank M. Clemons, a nephew of A. J. White, and Mrs. John Pope.

W. S. & S. Cain.

LONDON, August 30.—It is stated that W. S. & S. Caine, iron merchants of Liverpool, whose failure has been previously announced, expect eventually to meet their liabilities in full.

Checks Returned.

LONDON, August 30.—All the checks of John McIntosh, of Cornhill, E. C. London, and a large speculator in American railways, were returned last night, and he will be declared a defaulter on the Stock Exchange to-day or Monday.

For Liverpool.

NEW YORK, August 30.—The steamship Erie, of the National Line, which sails for Liverpool to-day, will have for shipment Pierce Lorillard's horses, comprising Falsetto and eight good looking, well bred yearlings.

The First Bale.

NORFOLK, August 30.—The first bale of new cotton arrived yesterday, consigned to Hymans & Dancey. It was graded as strict low middling, and sold for 11¼ cents.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

A serious railroad accident occurred yesterday morning in the suburbs of Cincinnati, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, killing one passenger and smashing the sleeping coach.

A son of Dr. Kenealy has been arrested in London for forging a newspaper reporter's name to a dispatch purporting to tell of his own suicide

In the Capital of Japan, writes a missionary, there are about 70,000 soldiers, all in the American uniform, and provided with arms purchased from the United States.

Judge Graves has been fining the bar-keepers of Asheville for violation of the Sunday liquor law. Some gentlemen of the "green cloth" profession also experienced similar treatment.

Mr. James Gordon Bennett has purchased an elegant stone villa on Bellevue avenue, Newport, belonging to the estate of the late Sydney Brooks, of Boston. It is one of the best appointed residences in Newport.

Nelson Lewis, who was struck over the head with a dray skid by William Goodman, in Richmond, a few days ago, has since died. Both were colored draymen, and the dispute arose out of a squabble over the right of way.

The Massachusetts Republicans are canvassing the respective merits of Pierce and Long as candidates for Governor, and are willing to take either, or to put one up for Governor and the other for Lieutenant Governor. Anything to beat Butler.

The largest cog-wheel ever made in Pittsburg has just been finished. The iron is twenty feet in diameter, the periphery ten inches wide; weight, twelve tons. It is designed for a sugar factory in Cuba, and is to be used for crushing sugar cane. It makes only two and a half revolutions a minute.

The engrossing topic of conversation at Saratoga among the politicians, is the probable action of the Republican Convention, which meets there on Wednesday next. It is believed that the candidates have narrowed down to three—A. B. Cornell, William H. Robertson, and J. H. Starin. Full delegations were chosen from the various districts in Kings county. The great majority of these are believed to favor the candidacy of Mr. Cornell. Delegates were also chosen yesterday from the 13th and 17th districts, and from several other counties of the State.

Sherman has been compelled to beat a retreat from Ohio, owing to a severe fire of interrogatories concerning the millions of Government money which he has left in the hands of his pet banks. He wants time to collect his scattered faculties on this subject, and ascertain which hole he can crawl through with the least scraping.—New York Star.

The case of the executors of the late Brigham Young's estate, who were imprisoned on the 4th inst, by Judge Boreman for contempt, was brought before the Supreme Court of the Territory on a writ of certiorari and decided to-day. The order of the lower court was reversed, and the prisoners were discharged.

Two mormons have been at work in Cherokee county, and converted some thirty of the people there. The citizens generally did not seem to like it, and tickled both the preachers and some of the converts with hickory twigs, on their shirtless backs. So says the Asheville Citizen.

A telegram from London says: Mr. Hone, a prominent Irish amateur, takes a team of gentlemen cricketers from Ireland to America to-day. Mr. Hone has written to Mr. Daft proposing that the Irish gentlemen meet the English players either at Philadelphia or New York for a match.

The New York Sun thus advises Weston: We have a word of friendly advice for Weston. His tongue is evidently not in as good training as his legs. He has taken unnecessary pains to advertise his dislike of a city that was all ready to make a pedestrian pet of him. Weston's best plan is to stop talking and devote his undivided attention to walking.

WASHINGTON.

Some Conjectures as to the Presidential Outlook and other Matters.

From our regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, August 29.—I mentioned in a letter to the NEWS some weeks since, Governor Palmer, of Illinois, as to the very probable "opaque equine," of 1880, and some inquiry and comment in certain quarters have been the result. I wrote those words not unadvisedly; and the "idea" has been favorably received. I never saw Governor P.,—very few people in North Carolina ever saw him, many there and elsewhere never heard of him. But those who know him and are familiar with his record, and, consequently, with his liberal, patriotic, conservative and unalterably democratic principles; those whose opportunities for learning his worth as a statesman and his preeminence as a scholar, and a Representative man of the great northwest, are ready to say "in case," or "if," etc. etc., he is the man for the emergency."

That he is an aspirant for the nomination, or that he has ever authorized or consented to the mention of his name in that connection, I am not prepared to say. But I know that thoughtful and sagacious men are looking to him as, in contingencies, the man for 1880.

And he would be highly acceptable as such. In the section of country where the NEWS mainly circulates, I feel sure he would receive a "solid" support.

Dull times in the Capital city. Nobody here, and scarce a ripple of excitement disturbs the calm serenity of the sleepy and listless metropolis. Now and then a roving Representative or a stray Senator, returning homeward from summer rambles, stops for a day or two; but the hungry interviewers pounce so pertinaciously upon him and so persistently ply him with perplexing questions as to the "situation" (about which he really knows no more than ordinary mortals), that he is glad to "fold his tent like the Arab, and as silently steal away."

Springer, of Illinois, was the last, and he thinks that New York—where he has lately spent several weeks—and Ohio will both go very decidedly Democratic in the approaching elections; that Clarkson N. Potter will be the compromise Democratic candidate for Governor in the former State; that he will be elected; and that, in all probability, Potter and Ewing will be the National ticket next year.

Many needed—and some probably not needed—improvements are being made on the capitol and public grounds. Many workmen are busy; the Senate chamber and House are dismantled and ugly; various repairs and alterations are going on. The building is overrun with ants, roaches, 'skeeters and—"tell it not in Gath!"—bed-bugs! 'Tis proposed to eradicate and exterminate these and other pests and nuisances. Result very doubtful. L.

Geese, Cows, Pigs, Etc.

Correspondence of the News.

If Raleigh, like the ancient Roman matron was asked to display her jewels, it might point with equal pride to its geese, cows, pigs etc., who daily parade its streets, sending forth strains of the most melodious (?) music. G.

A Town Sinking.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., August 28.—The populace of Mill Hollow, a suburban mining village of this city, was thrown into excitement yesterday by alarming subterranean sounds. For some months past the tenants of some of the houses have been conscious of peril by reason of signs of a caving in of the surface. Tuesday night at about eleven o'clock the surface of the ground in the rear of the dwellings of the Messrs. Morgan, Williams & Welger began to sink. At about 3 o'clock yesterday morning some two acres of the gardens and nurseries belonging to the aforesaid, went down about eight feet, cracking the house and alarming the community to such an extent as to drive all in the community from their homes. The ground around the sunken pit for acres is cracked, and it is belived that the entire surface of the land undermined must go down, destroying many private and public buildings. The disaster was owing to the fact that the vein of coal worked is not protected by a rider of rock and slate.

Railroad Meeting.

Wilson Advance.

An enthusiastic railroad meeting was held at Nashville last Tuesday. Speeches were made by Captain C. M. Cooke, Colonel W. H. Avera and others. Our friends are fully alive to their interest, and are determined to make a success of their railroad project. We bid them God speed and can assure them of our most hearty co-operation in their enterprise. Keep the ball in motion, and the shrill whistle of the engine will soon be heard as it dashes through fields and forests that are now almost barren wastes.

The Year of Plenty.

Richmond Dispatch.

In our recollection, now covering a long period of time, we do not think there has ever been a year more productive and more abundant in all the necessaries and comforts of life than the present.

BY STAGE AND RAIL.

TWO ACCIDENTS AND THE RESULTING INJURIES.

A Stage Upsets and Several are Injured--An Excursionist falls off a Train and Horribly Mangled.

Special Dispatch to the News.

HENRY, August 29.—A stage was upset near Mr. Fortune's plantation, about twelve miles from here to-day, injuring several passengers, among whom were Colonel Gaston and J. M. Leach, Jr., of South Carolina, and J. G. Grant, John Hyams and Mr. Chambers, of this place. None of the injuries were serious. Mr. Grant had his shoulder dislocated. E.

MARION, August 29.—As an excursion train was returning to Salisbury last evening, a man named Hall Neeley, said to belong to Rowan county, fell off the train and was terribly mangled. The train run on for about three miles and then was backed to the spot and he was picked up. From what can be gathered it appears that he was sitting on the front platform of the rear car, and having been drinking freely he fell asleep. A slight lurch threw him off and the car passed over him, cutting off his left arm at the shoulder, badly cutting his side, and making a fearful wound in his head, crushing the skull, allowing some of the brain to exude. Pieces of the bone have been detached as well as a small portion of the brain. The accident occurred about four miles from here. An attempt was made this evening to amputate his arm, but the surgeon had to desist for a time as the man was gasping for breath. The physicians state that he cannot live. W.

GRANVILLE.

HENDERSON, August 29 —The weather for the past ten days has been very pleasant; the nights now, bright, lovely and cool.

Business seems to be good, though it is a little dull for Henderson. Tobacco is still coming in though not in such large quantities as heretofore, owing to the fact that the old crop is mostly exhausted. The breaks at the different warehouses this week have been pretty large.

Mrs. Lewellen Kittrell, residing in the health seat neighborhood gave birth to two fine twins a short time since, she and the babies are doing well under the skillful treatment treatment of Dr. Tucker of this place.

Marriages have played out in this section something has frightened the young people out of the notion of marrying.

Nothing doing in the police court, our good Mayor has but little business before his court. The town is quiet and orderly.

CATAWBA.

HICKORY, August 28.—your correspondent has been on a tour through the country of late, hence his tardiness in the matter of news. Throughout the counties of Catawba, Lincoln and Cleaveland, the crops are looking fine. A better prospect for corn could not be desired. Cotton is said to have too much weed for a good yield, and the wet weather has done it some injury; still, there is yet great hopes and prospects for "king cotton." Tobacco bids fair to be a fair crop, it is not so much injured by drought as in other sections of the State, and this production is yet in its infancy here, though destined to be the leading product of this section.

Blackberries, though a short crop this season, yield, at five cents per pound, considerable revenue to the country, especially to the poorer classes, whose energies are in full blast when blackberries come. Dried fruits are not plentiful, and the foreign demand is somewhat exciting prices.

There is an abundance of wheat on the market, and the neighboring mills are running night and day.

The weather is rather cool and variable, though not so much rain of late. H.

ORANGE.

DURHAM, August 30.—Yesterday was a day long to be remembered by Durhamites. It was the occasion of the opening of Parish's new brick warehouse. Early Thursday morning wagons commenced to pour in from all directions, and by night the immense floor, the passage way and even the two large offices, were covered with tobacco. It was a sight grand to behold, even to those who have been accustomed to large breaks, much less to a person unaccustomed to tobacco sales. Upon reference to Captain Parish's books we found there to be about seven hundred piles of tobacco on the floor. At 10½ o'clock, immediately after the sale at Planters' warehouse, G. E. Webb, the auctioneer, called the buyers up, and in a lively manner the sale began, and so continued until it wound up. The sale lasted about five hours, making about one hundred and forty piles to the hour. Everybody was satisfied, both buyers and sellers, and Captain Parish and his competent officers were highly complimented for their success in conducting the largest tobacco sale that has ever taken place in North Carolina. Quite a number of buyers from other markets were present. The other warehouses had large breaks and good sales.

James K. Redman, a one-legged ex-Confederate soldier, who belonged to the celebrated old North Carolina Sixths, died on last Thursday. He was never married, and it is thought leaves several thousand dollars. He has a mother and brother.

Everyone was glad to hear, on yesterday, of the improved condition of Lalla, the little daughter of Mr. J. S. Carr, who has been quite sick at Hickory. Mr. Carr had started to Catawba Springs with his family, but owing to the condition of his daughter had to stop in Hickory. T.

IREDELL.

COOL SPRINGS, Aug. 28.—The weather is delightful.

Alex. File, who lately returned from Illinois to his fathers in Rowan county, was arrested a few days ago and carried back to that State. He was charged with forgery.

The Shermanites are strengthening their port in this county by appointing prominent Democrats to various paying positions in the Revenue Department.

A revival has been conducted at Society (Baptist) church by Rev's. Fulford and Conrod for the last two weeks. About twenty have made professions and seventeen have united with the church. Dr. Nall, the Presbyterian evangelist is holding a meeting at Troutman's Depot on the Charlotte & Statesville Railroad.

Tobacco has been greatly injured by the continued rains.

Recapture of a Penitentiary Bird.

Oxford Free Lance.

On Saturday last, Adam Lewis, (col'd), was lodged in Oxford jail, having been on that day captured in Sassafras Fork Township by Messrs. Henry Y. Allen and Gray Tillotson. Lewis is an escaped convict from the Penitentiary, having been sentenced to two years imprisonment for larceny at the Fall term of Granville Superior Court. He was afterwards put to work on the W. N. C. R. R. and made his escape in January last. He been loafing about various portions of the county since that time engaged, it is said, in a number of depredations. It is also charged that at the time of his escape, he assisted in the murder of one of the guards. He will remain in jail here awaiting orders from the Penitentiary authorities.

DYING AT HIS MOTHER'S FEET.

A Young Man Shoots Himself Because He Was Rebuked.

N. Y. Star, 29th.

William A. Armstrong, 23 years old residing at No, 91 Fourth place Brooklyn, committed suicide in his room last night. He has been married about seven months, and his wife is young, well educated and pretty. For seven years, up to two weeks ago, young Armstrong was employed in Hillstead's stationary store, in the Cotton Exchange building of this city. The store closed two weeks and since the Armstrong has been idle. In the neighborhood his mother and mother-in-law lived. It is said the young man did not live pleasantly with his wife, and this offended his mother. Last night Armstrong's mother called at his room on the second floor of No. 91 Fourth place, and found him in the company of his wife. The mother, in a kindly way, remonstrated with her son concerning his conduct, and asked him to become a better man.

As Armstrong's mother turned to leave the room he sprang from his chair and drew a five-barreled revolver. Before either of the women could interfere the young man placed the muzzle of the revolver to his left temple and fired a single shot. He reeled across the room and fell at his mother's feet dead. The shrieks of the horrified mother and wife alarmed the inmates of the house, and they poured into the room. In one corner of the room stood the younger mans's wife, wringing her hands and weeping violently. The mother was kneeling on the floor moaning, and endeavoring to staunch the blood which poured from the ghastly wound in the suicide's head. The women were with difficulty persuaded to leave the room, and the police were notified.

Armstrong was a bright but impetuous young man. Among his associates he was regarded with favor. His most intimate friends say that he was sensitive to an unusual degree, and believes that he was temporarily insane when committed suicide.

COAL STILL GOING DOWN.

To-Day's Sale by the Lackawanna Company.

NEW YORK, August 27.—By order of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, 50,000 tons of Scranton coal, from the Lackawanna Valley, were sold at the company's salesroom, 26 Exchange place, at noon to-day.

The sale was well attended, but there was a determined and successful effort on the part of the buyers to bring down prices, which declined at the rate of from 17½ to 37½ cents per ton; 15,000 tons of grate coal were first offered and started at $1.75. The bidding stopped at $2.12½, at which figure 1,500 tons were sold; $2.10 was then offered and accepted for 1,150 tons, and only $2.02½ could be obtained for the remainder. Only 5,000 tons of egg were offered, of which 3,700 sold at $2.15, and the rest at $2.17½.

When 25,000 tons of stove coal were put up, the bidding rapidly advanced from the starting price of $2.25 to $2.40, at which rate only 1,000 tons could be sold, and $2.37½ had to be accepted for the remainder. There were only 5,000 tons of chestnut put up; $2.17½ was the price paid for 1,250 tons, and the price then advanced to $2.22½, at which price the remaining 3,750 tons were knocked down.

RARE HORSE FLESH.

Rarus, the Celebrated Trotter passes into the Hands of Mr. Robert Bonner.

Washington Post dispatch, 29th.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 20.—The races for the day were the 2:24 class and free-for-all, with Rarus and Hopeful. Rarus was sold this afternoon for $36,000, to Mr. W. M. Whitehead, of New York. He is supposed to have been bought for Mr. Bonner, the purchasing deeds not allowing Rarus to fill his engagement here. The association considered it a misdemeanor and expelled Mr. R. B. Conklin and the horse Rarus from all association tracks. The management then arranged with the owner of Sleepy Tom to pace in the three-in-five race with Hopeful.

Railroad Meeting at Nashville.

Louisburg Times, 28th.

On Tuesday the 26th instant, the citizens met in convention to take into consideration the construction of the Louisburg and and Rock Mount railroad.

Captain. J. A. Harrison of Gastalia, was made president of the meeting and Dr. W. C. Lankford of Franklin, secretary.

Captain C. M. Cooke addressed the meeting. He would not argue the importance of the road, for every one who lived ten or twenty miles from a railroad knew and felt the necessity of one. He clearly showed the feasibility of the work. A letter was read from Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President of the W. & W. R. R., which was encouraging. Captain W. H. Avera, editor of Goldsboro Mail, addressed the meeting and recommended a practical plan of operation, which will be adopted. Other gentlemen addressed the meeting, when it was moved to appoint a committee, whose duty it will be to consult with Mr. Pittman, a surveyor, and ascertain the probable cost of the survey; to receive subscription for the survey and to meet at Castalia on Wednesday the 10th of September and prepare a report to the next meeting of the Board of Directors of the W. & W. R. R. and to have a representative at said meeting.

The following gentlemen constituted said committee:

John R Green, Rocky Mount; B H Sorsby, Nashville; Dr D N Sills, W J King, Castalia; Dr W C Lankford, J S Barrow, Franklin.

The people feel a deep interest in this road. They are anxious for the preliminary work to be arranged and for the subscription books to be opened.

The labors of the committee are very important and as soon as they are completed the work will begin in earnest.

10,000 WITNESSES.

HE WOULD NOT DIE WITH HIS BOOTS ON.

The Hanging of Bowman, the Wife-Poisoner, at Asheboro, Friday--- Innocence Declared as Usual.

The NEWS, as was stated in yesterday's issue, had made arrangements for obtaining a special report of the hanging of Thomas P. Bowman, at Asheboro, Friday, but the details were received too late for publication then.

The night before the execution Bowman slept well, and on arising washed himself and prepared for his last breakfast, of which he partook freely, though slowly, seeming to ponder over his impending doom. He was downcast and at times morose, frequently making snarling replies to questions addressed him, and when he was asked whether or no he was guilty, he said that he had answered that question time and again and didn't propose to answer any more such questions. During the morning religious services were conducted in his cell, to which he appeared to give but little attention. About 1 o'clock p. m. he was taken from the jail, and placed in a wagon, he seated himself upon his coffin; the guard surrounded the equipage, and the cortege moved to the place of execution, which was located in a little valley about a mile west of the village. On reaching the gallows further religious services were held, the prisoner chewing tobacco in the meanwhile. While the prayer was being offered up he was visibly affected, and now and then a convulsive sob could be heard.

When the prayer was finished he pulled off his boots, then stood up and in a low voice denied the charge that he had poisoned his wife; that he was not guilty; that if he committed any wrong he did not know it; that he had made his peace with this world and the next, and that he was ready to die. The sheriff then adjusted the noose, and Bowman complained that it hurt him. The last moment had come; his legs trembled and he seemed scarcely able to hold himself up. The rope was cut, he swung around, two or three strong muscular contortions were apparent, and all was over. At 2:35, ten minutes after the fall, the physicians declared that life was extinct and the body was cut down. On examination it was found that the neck had been broken. The corpse was placed in a cheap coffin and delivered to his relations for interment.

Bowman left a sketch of his life, written while in jail.

It is estimated that there were ten thousand persons present who had flocked in from the country for miles around to witness the execution.

He that follows the Lord fully, will find goodness and mercy following him continually.

We can not have fertilizing showers of the earth without a clouded heaven above. It is thus with our trials.

Happy is he who has learned this one thing—to do the plain duty of the moment quickly and cheerfully, whatever it may be.

Rowland Hill, entering one day the house of one of his congregation, saw a child on a rocking horse. "Dear me," he exclaimed, "how wondrously like some Christians; there is motion, but no progress."

There are men in the world who wear a girdle of fret, as trying as any friar's, to annoy themselves. They fancy that in such experience is to be found the highest fulfillment of religious duty, and the truest expression of this world's probation.—Rev. Stephen H. Tyng.

"Knowledge, without common sense," says Lee, "is folly; without method, it is waste; without kindness, it is fanaticism; without religion, it is death." But with common sense, it is wisdom; with method, it is power; with charity, it is beneficence; with religion, it is virtue, and life, and peace.—Farrar.

From the beginning of our history the country has been afflicted with compromise. It is by compromise that human rights have been abandoned. I insist that this shall cease. The country needs repose after all its trials, it deserves repose. And repose can only be found in everlasting principles.—Charles Sumner.

A leading elocutionist once said to a young preacher: "I can do nothing more for you. All that you need now to make you a power is some great sorrow." A heart that has had no breaking lacks the divine element of sympathy. If the Lord himself was perfected through suffering, can not we, his children, thankfully accept the baptism he was baptized with?

We take it that the great need of the hour is better living. Neither the world nor the church needs learning, or eloquence, or zeal, or sanctified wealth half so much as it needs the power of holy lives. We need a more perfect agreement between what men in the church claim to be and what they actually are. Nothing is more hurtful to the cause than the want of such agreement.

The Scotch fir-tree is, to my mind, the best symbol of the Christian. The least of earth is required for its roots; it finds nourishment in a dry soil and amid barren rocks, and, yet, green in winter as in summer, it towers the highest of all the trees of the wood toward the sky, and with least of earth makes the greatest approach to heaven. So it is with the tree of God's planting; with the least of earth about its roots, it towers the nearest to heaven; deriving nourishment, not from the earth below, but from the sunbeams that fall upon it, and the rain-drops that sprinkle it, supported by the hidden nourishment that comes from God.—John Cumming, D. D.

HEADS AND TAILS.

Bang! bang! "Aha!" cried Tom and Jack,
"I got him then!" A splendid canvass-back."
"You got him? Not a bit,
'Twas I who made the hit!
Charley, whose bird is it?"
"Your claims, my boys, are equally absurd;
'Twas simply fright that killed the bird!"

Vance in Statesville.

Senator Vance was in Statesville last week, and was importuned for a speech, which he made, and is thus described by the Statesville Landmark:

"The war would be waged by Democrats for free elections—no troops at the polls; no partisan deputy marshals to intimidate and awe weak and timid voters; while, on the other hand, the Republican party would fight to deprive States of their right to control their own elections—to have troops at the polls—to eventually control all elections by the bayonet.

He thought the outlook encouraging to the Democratic party. There would be no more counting in of fraudulent Presidents, for there was 'a different bull-dog at the rat-hole this time.' The next man who would take the Presidential seat would be the one who received the most votes—which had not lately been the case. The next President would be declared elected by honest men, and not by an electoral commission.

He thought it almost certain that South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida would go Democratic, and spoke of other acquisitions, which would elect the Democratic nominee, and still we would have twenty votes to spare." Again thanking the band, the Senator withdrew.

CLARKSON N. POTTER.

An Interview with Congressman Springer---A new Presidential Ticket to be put up.

The Post had half an hours chat with Congressman Springer, of Illinois, yesterday. He has been a frequent visitor in New York City during the summer, and has seen and talked with all the leading Democrats of that State. "Will Gov. Robinson be placed upon the State ticket this fall again in defiance of Tammany?" asked the Post. "No, he will not," said Mr. Springer, "that difficulty will be arranged satisfactorily to all the elements of the party."

"Who will be the nominee for governor?"

"Clarkson N. Potter will be the man, and he will be elected, too. He is acceptable to all the Democrats, and will be supported with enthusiasm. He will make a splendid governor, too, let me tell you, and I regard him as a very probable nominee for the Presidency. He is not mixed up in any of the party quarrels; is a man of fine ability, exalted character and pure statesmanship. He will carry New York by a majority of thousands, and then if Ewing carries Ohio, I think our next National ticket will be Potter and Ewing."

"Do you believe Ewing can carry Ohio?"

"Yes, I do. Every letter I have received from the State gives assurance of his success. That is a very strong ticket—Ewing and Rice—both able and popular men, and they cannot be beaten."

"What about this story of Democrats abandoning Ewing and working to carry the legislature in Ohio?"

"There's not a word of truth in it. It was coined out of whole cloth by Radical papers. The fact is, that party is driven to the wall, and they are trying to fight the campaign on falsehood. There's not a day upon which they don't start just such a falsehood, with the idea of taking public attention from the real issues of the fight. All we have to fear in Ohio is the money that John Sherman can put into the State for corrupt purposes. That's the means by which he expects to win. There's no doubt but that he can draw upon the First National bank of New York for thousands of dollars for use in the Ohio election. He has made the Treasury Department subservient to that bank, and he hasn't done that for nothing With anything like a fair and free election in Ohio I have no doubt of Ewing's success. And why should the Democrats abandon him? If they elect the State ticket they'll get the legislature too. Every blow struck for the State ticket counts as well for the Senatorship, and we intend to get it all."

"Do you think Judge Davis stands any chance of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency?"

"In the event that the Democrats should lose both Ohio and New York—and improbable thing—I think Judge Davis would be our nominee. Then we would have to carry Illinois, Wisconsin and one or two other Western States, and he would be the man to do that."

Mr. Springer leaves for his home at Springfield, Ill., this morning, and will go into the canvass in Ohio next month.

The Stallion Rarus.

New York Sun, 29th-

It having been announced by telegram from Hartford yesterday afternoon that the famous trotting horse Rarus had been sold to Mr. Z. E. Simmons, of this city, for thirty-six thousand dollars, a reporter of the Sun called on Mr. Simmons to inquire about the truthfulness of the report. He found Mr. Simmons at the Hoffman House, and the following conversation took place:

Reporter—Mr. Simmons, is it true that you have bought Rarus?

Mr. Simmons—Yes, sir.

Reporter—Have you any objection to stating the price?

Mr. Simmons—Not the least—thirty-six thousand dollars.

Reporter—May I ask why you did not allow Rarus to trot at Hartford yesterday?

Mr. Simmons—Simply because I was not present. I was not willing to let a horse of his value trot unless I was there to see him. I received a dispatch from the gentleman who bought him for me that he had bought the horse just before the race, and informed me that it was optional with me to have him trot or not. It was too late, of course, for me to get to Hartford then. Had there been time for me to go to Hartford, I should have gone on, and let him trot under my own eye. As there was not, I preferred not to let him trot. Of course I had no contract or understanding with the Hartford people, or I should have kept it. They have no ground for any complaint against me.

The Indian Troubles.

Baltimore Sun, 29th.

Respecting the reported trouble made by the Indians on the James river, 100 miles above Yankton, Dakota, it is stated that Drifting Goose and his band, numbering about 100, including women and children, had permission to go thither from the Crow Creek agency for the purpose of identifying the lands upon which his people had always lived until brought into the agency about a year ago. Upon the arrival there they became very independent and refused to return, whereupon the agent was directed to bring them back, and if the police force at his command was not sufficient to call in the aid of the military. It is believed that before this time the Indians are back at Crow Creek agency. The bureau does not credit the story of the murder of the mail carrier by Drifting Goose's band.

Red Snow.

Red snow, which is usually found only in Arctic latitudes, is seen on a lofty summit near Mount Stanford, in the Sierra Nevadas. For several acres the vast drifts are of a beautiful pinkish tint to the depth of three or four inches. It is a beautiful spectacle. One explanation of it is that myriads of minute organisms cover the surface.

Mud Cut to the Front.

Newton Enterprise.

This famous spot comes to the front once more. This time the bank caves in on a passenger train and completely buries one coach. This took place last Saturday night as the down passenger train with excursion car attached was making its way through the cut. Fortunately no one was hurt.

SUSPENDED IN MID AIR.

A CASE OF REMARKABLE PRESENCE OF MIND.

A Missing Young Girl Found Hanging to the Side of Stone Mountain.

Atlanta Dispatch, 29th.

Yesterday a pleasure party started from the Josse House, in Decatur, to visit Stone Mountain. Among the party was Mrs. W. C. Jones, of Augusta, and her daughter, Emmie, about nine years old, and three or four small children. Emmie and the little daughter of Mrs. Cunningham, of Savannah, wandered from the grown people and were soon lost. They rambled through the thick undergrowth, calling for their parents, but had gotten too far to be heard. The children were moving rapidly, when, without any warning, Emmie slipped from the steep and almost perpendicular side of the mountain, falling about.

THREE HUNDRED FEET,

when by great presence of mind she managed to catch a little shrub and cling to the mossy sides of the mountain, her feet resting on a space of about fifteen inches of glutted rock. Had she again slipped she would have been buried

ONE THOUSAND FEET

farther and been dashed to pieces among the sharp rocks below. Her little companion missed her but did not know she had fallen, and finally found the grown people from whom she had been separated. The entire party went in search of Emmie, and were about to give up the hunt, when some parties passing the base on that side of the mountain, looked up and saw the child suspended in mid air, as it were. Information was quickly carried to the anxious mother and the question arose how could she be rescued. She had been in that position for two hours and no time was be to lost. A brave and gallant young gentleman named about nineteen years of age, volunteered to descend the treacherous mountain side and rescue the child from impending death. The child below was urging them to be quick—that she was growing very cold. A swift, strong wind was sweeping the mountain sides, and it was growing quite late. No time was lost, and in a few minutes a coil of rope was brought, hastily adjusted around the brave young man, and assisted by Mr. J. T. Willingham he was lowered to where the child was clinging to the scaly walls. Reaching the child he gathered her in his arms and brought her safely to the arms of her mother. The child clutched young Goldsmith with such force that she left the imprint of her blue fingers deeply imbeded in his arm.

GEORGE H. GOLDSMITH,

Our readers can imagine the joy of the mother and the deep gratitude she feels to the gallant young man who rescued her darling.

How to Do It.

Boston Commercial Bulletin.

A German gentleman who keeps a seven by nine lager-beer shop at the South End treated himself to a day's vacation recently, leaving his son in charge of "ter pizziness" and a keg of beer. On his return he found the keg empty and addressed his offspring as follows:

"How is dis, Yawcob, dot you make me only ein dollar und dirty cents for dose keg of beer? Show me how you draws der beer."

Yawcob took the glass and drew it nearly full of beer, with but the least margin of froth, when the old gentleman, seizing his hand, said:

"You make dose glasses stand higher down from der keg, Yawcob, der profit in der peer pizziness is in der pubbles."

"Let Them Not be Confounded!"

There is so much said in the papers of the day about the action of the Constitutional Convention of the State of Louisiana just adjourned, that it is but proper to notify, the people, that the State indebtedness in no way affects the management and the plans of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, which, since its incorporation in 1868, has never scaled its scemes or postponed its drawings, but, with strict integrity, has observed its pledges to the public inviolate, and has hence derived a popuiarity unheard of since the days when General George Washington drew a lottery under the authority of the Continental Congress, to carry on the War for Independence. The next—the 112,—monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery will occur on Tuesday September 9th, and any information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692 New Orleans, or the same at No. 310 Broadway, New York City.

Both Are Dirty.

Boston Herald.

Kalloch is a bad lot. So is De Young. Both are dirty. They indulged in bad language toward each other—a very bad practice. Neither told the whole truth about the other. It would take a long time. It would be no loss to the world if Kalloch should die of De Young's bullet, or De Young of a tight cravat. Last year the California workingmen worshipped De Young. This year they worship Kalloch. Why do they worship unprincipled editors or adulterous preachers when there are honest workingmen living?

A Well Kept Hotel.

The Wilson Advance, alluding to the recent Press Convention, says:

"Having previously accepted an invitation from Messrs. S. R. Street & Son, proprietors of the National Hotel, to dine with them as we passed through Raleigh, we next proceeded to the National, where we were most cordially welcomed. The dinner which was prepared for us convinced us at once that the proprietors thoroughly understood their business. The National is a commodious, well arranged building, centrally located, comfortably furnished, and is now one of the best kept hotels in the State."

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

SUNDAY, - - AUGUST 31, 1879.

It is whispered that four new cardinals are to be created at the consistory in Rome next month and that the United States will secure another red hat. This country now ranks sixth in point of its Catholic population, coming next after Germany.

YESTERDAY afternoon's dispatches announce the death of General John B. Hood, formerly of the Confederate army, of yellow fever. General Hood, although not a great general in the strict sense of the word, was a thoroughly brave man and a brilliant fighter, and his sudden demise will be gratly regretted by his old comrades in arms.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, the humorous political writer, was arrested in Cincinnati on Saturday last while standing in front of the Enquirer office. The policeman mistook him for an ordinary tramp, and ordered him to move on. He refused, and was marched off to the station, where he was confined in a cell for more than an hour. Now he proposes "to make it hot for the Cincinnati police department."

IT is estimated that over 2,500,000 people have taken up homes in the West and South in the past five years. Of this number not over 600,000 can possibly have been supplied by foreign emigration, the rest of the total of 1,920,000 emigrants in those years staying East or in towns or cities of the Pacific. At least 1,888,000 people have therefore, gone from the East and from Virginia and from Kentucky in the last five years; over 500,000 of them during 1878--'79.

THE Washington City papers announce that the Secretary of War and the President have annulled the sentence of the court-martial that cashiered Dr. Hammond the Surgeon-General of the U. S. A. in 1864. They do this in opposition to the finding of the recent board appointed to review the former sentence. Would it not be well for Mr. Hayes and Mr. McCrary to wipe out some of their own stains before attempting to whitewash Dr. H. in this arbitrary manner.

THE lastest advices from Japan go to show that the Asiatic cholera prevails to a frightful extent. Forty thousand cases are reported and twenty-five thousand deaths. The government is making strenuous efforts to prevent the further spread of the scourge, but is not properly supported by foreign powers. Indeed, its regulations for the protection of its subjects have been deliberately violated by both the English and German resident ministers, who have called upon men-of-war of their respective nations and forced the quarantine. This action is not creditable to either of these governments, and it is to be hoped that it will be promptly disapproved. They cannot afford to bully a weak nation in this manner. In marked contrast to the course pursued by the Representatives of England and Germany is that of the American minister, who has uniformly cooperated with the authorities of Japan in preventing any violation of the laws of the country by citizens of the United States. This is proper and cannot be too highly commended.

MOLDING PUBLIC OPINION.

In the early days of journalism in the United States, when daily papers were a rarity and weeklies were not as closely planted as at present; when electioneering documents in the form of printed copies of individual speeches occurring in Congressional debates were not so diffusely scattered over the country at the expense of the Nation, political articles of an argumentative nature were the distinctive feature of each and every paper of either party and were intended to mold public opinion to a favoring view of the principle advanced. These articles were, in the leading journals, generally well written and marked by plain statements followed by cogent reasoning as to the benefit or injury that would ensue from the adoption of this or that principle of political economy. The more able the journal the stronger its influence; and it cannot be denied that the press, in so far as strengthening or changing the political opinions of the people by use of logical argument, was more potent then than now.

But this has all changed. Editorial "leaders" are, when read at all, considered as but the personal opinions of a single individual, and not the reflex of a sustained political party plan or sentiment; and they often contain statements that are mere assertions, and wide of the truth at that, in order that an impression of wrong-doing on the part of the opposition may be conveyed, thereby subserving the ends of its own partisan friends. If such statements attacking the probity of this or that person, however, have nothing solid to rest upon, they are quickly seized on by the opposition and demolished. If the attacking journal is powerful the aggressive course is carried out to its fullest extent, and a statement once made is never retracted, but on the contraay reiterated.

This practice is becoming well understood, and the necessity of a change of tactics being apparent, a new but equally reprehensible method is coming in vogue. We allude to the abuse of the system of "interviewing." A sharp reporter in conversation with almost any prominent political personage will obtain his views as to the state of affairs, and around the bare statement so obtained he will weave a glowing web such as was never dreamed of by the reputed author, who by these means is made to stand sponsor for statements that he would not utter or indorse. This was clearly shown to us Friday evening in a casual conversation with Judge Settle, of Florida. The Judge stated that while on his Northern tour he had repeatedly declined to be interviewed on political matters by representatives of the leading New York papers, yet to his great surprise the Herald published a report of what professed to be an interview with him. He remembered conversing with a gentleman on national politics, but at the time had not the slightest idea that he was a reporter, and when he read the statement he found to his great surprise that he was made responsible for thoughts he never entertained, and utterances that he never made; two-thirds of the report was bogus so far as he was concerned.

Such a statement, purporting to emanate from a representative Southern Republican, certainly must have more or less effect on public sentiment, and all the denials the Judge might choose to make could not counteract such effect.

Verily, this mode of molding public opinion is a powerful one, and of needs must soon effect a change in the manner of conducting journalism. The editor will have to leave the tripod and give place to the imaginative interviewer.

HOW TO RUN A "BOOM."

It has been the fortune, or misfortune, of many a prominent candidate for the Presidency to have himself announced so far in advance of the time of meeting of the nominating convention as to almost shatter any hope he might have entertained of securing the coveted prize. For no sooner is one put forward than another treads upon his heels, and when the time comes for making the selection the leading two are so evenly matched, especially if their adherents are determined not to enter into combinations looking to the advancement of either one or the other, that they have to stand aside and let the "dark horse" win the race. This was eminently so in the convention that nominated Mr. Hayes. Neither Messrs. Conkling and Blaine could command the requisite number of votes to obtain the nomination. Each side was equally determined not to give in to the other, and they were thus forced to take up a candidate that they could center on. Messrs. Conkling and Blaine's "booms" had sounded to early; Mr. Hayes had no "boom" at all.

The friends of General Grant have made the same mistake; Mr. Blaine is in the same position; it is generally conceded that Mr. Conkling has lost his chances; Mr. Sherman's "boom" has spent itself, although he is strong with Federal patronage. But Mr. Hayes seems to be silently covering the ground while the rest are sounding their trumpets in vain endeavors to augment their strength with new recruits.

But there is one candidate that has a "boom" which is not manufactured by himself or his friends—singularly enough it is sounded by his enemies. We refer to Mr. Tilden. The N. Y. Tribune and kindred journals have been so pertinacious in their assaults upon his public character that their statements have cloyed the mind of the people and are regarded as stale matters. He has been called a railroad wrecker, a cheat in his mining operations, a political trickster who endeavored to purchase State boards that he might secure the Presidential chair, an evader of honest dues to the Government, and lately of having committed a breach of faith whereby he has made a million of dollars and inflicted great injury to a large corporation. These charges have not been proven, and therein their weakness stands confessed. They have only placed him in a more prominent light before the people, and have not in the least injured him; they have only made it appear that he is dreaded by the Radical leaders as the most dangerous man they would have to contend with. And this is the reason that the Tilden "boom" is more powerful than all the other "booms" combined.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Senator Jones, of Florida, is credited with having recently given it as his opinion that Senator Bayard is too good a man to be made President of the United States. We don't know but what we are obliged to agree with Mr. Jones.—Washington Post.

Mr. Hayes now admits that he personally contributed $500 to the Casanave hush fund, but no more. We do not care to quibble about figures. The fact that the bogus President disbursed one solitary dollar for such an object is proof sufficient of his guilty knowledge of the deeds which went before.—Washington Post.

The Dems. are Giving John.
Louisville Courier-Journal.

Sherman's organs explain that the alleged Democrats employed by the Boss in the Treasury Department are ex-Confederates who have repented of their sins and have been thoroughly reconstructed into "active, consistent and influential Republicans." Of course everybody knows that Sherman would not employ a Democrat. He has more than once declared that it is not possible for a Democrat to be anything but a "traitor." Besides, the Dems. are giving John a good shaking up, and will shake him more before they are through with him.

Too Common in the North.
Louisville Courier-Journal.

"The retort of Kalloch was that of a beastly desperado, and he deserved to be shot dead for it."—Cincinnati Commercial.

No; according to your daily lectures on morality to the Southern people, De Young ought to have taken all Kalloch's abuse and referred the matter to a court of law. You advise your Northern Republican fellow-citizens, we observe, to take the law into their own hands. The practice is too common in the North now.

Will Have it to Shoulder.
Wilmington Star.

In common with our comtemporaries generally, we regret that a failure to sign the school bill will be detrimental to the interest of thousands of the poor children of the State; but it would be an innovation upon long established usage, to put it mild, to sign a bill when there is no Legislature in session, and in order to remedy a neglect or omission. The Speakers will have to shoulder whatever responsibility may attach to the neglect to perform their duty at the proper time.

A Melancholy Fact.
Louisville Courier-Journal

It is a melancholy fact that the editor of the Okolona States and the editor of the Lemars Sentinel are both Northern men. It takes an immense amount of fire to keep the inwards of these two warriors in health.

Two Feeble Men.

Tammany's promised address to the Democrats of the State, on the question of Governor Robinson's renomination, has been issued. It rehearses the familiar grievances, but does so with a trifle less bitterness than usual. There is a tone of hopelessness about the document which indicates a foreboding in the minds of the compilers that they were engaged on a futile task. The old charges of ingratitude and breach of faith with the Democrats of this city are made once more, and there is a touch of former liveliness in the assertion that the Governor is a "tool of "railroad and insurance companies." The claims of his friends that he has saved money for the State are declared to be absurd, and he is accused of working in the interest of corporations to the injury of the farmers and other laboring classes. After charging him with an activity in evil courses which is little short of infernal, the address makes the curious declaration that he is suffering from physical infirmities which incapacitate him for the duties of his office. This is a genuine case of "feebleness," strikingly like that of Mr. Tilden. Both men, we are constantly told, are tottering on the brink of the grave; yet they keep the Democratic party in commotion all the time, and in subjection whenever they feel disposed to do so. The address concludes with the formal asseveration that "under no circumstances will the Democrats of "this city vote for Lucius Rob-"inson." This is a declaration of war to Tilden and Robinson, which, feeble as they both are, they are said to be fully prepared to meet.

Teaching Chinese at Harvard.

Two Chinamen, dressed in their quaint costume, called on Mayor Cooper of New York Thursday. Their names are Mr. Ko-Klun-Hua and his servant, Chin-Tin-Sing. The former handed the mayor some documents, which he looked over. They were in English and Chinese, and among them was a letter from Francis P. Knight, of Boston, dated 22d February, 1877, to President C. W. Eliot, of Harvard University, setting forth the necessity of having Chinese taught at Harvard, and a letter from Mr. Eliot in reply, coinciding with Mr. Knight's views. There was also a written agreement, dated at Shaghai, 26th May, 1879, between Mr. Knight, on behalf of the president and fellows of Harvard College, and Ko-Klun-Hua, to teach the Chinese language at Harvard College for three years, at a salary of $200 a month. The mayor welcomed his visitors, who soon after took their departure.

Provender.

Among our numerous subscribers, around about Henderson, perhaps there are some whom it will suit to furnish us some oats or fodder for "our beast," and others can bring us eggs, chickens, fruit or vegetables, for which we will pay market prices.

Don't be hesitating. Bring along "the things." We can't give you "good writing" without "provender."

What Do the Politicians Care?
Reidsville Times.

The Supreme court has decided against signing the school bill. The Raleigh NEWS wants to know what the poor children in the state will do. Go to mill as before, we imagine. What do the politicians care?

Just How Much.
Louisville Courier-Journal.

It would be interesting to know just how much money the First National Bank of New York let Secretary Sherman have for campaign purposes in Ohio.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System,

ITS MEDICINAL QUALITIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

Vegetine is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead, and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints Dropsy, Female Weakness Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organ, allays inflammation, cures ulceration, and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness, and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, Pastor of M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative powers of Vegetine.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1, 1874.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir, We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reducee that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
Mrs. L. C. F. BEST.

North Carolina Merchants in Baltimore.

Baltimore Sun, 29th.

Several hundred Southern merchants and business men, chiefly from North Carolina, reached Baltimore yesterday by the Norfolk boat and by rail via Richmond, on excursions given by different transportation lines. A large number of others are expected to come up from Norfolk to-day. The visitors generally registered at the different hotels, and spent the day among Baltimore business houses and in sight-seeing around the city and in the parks. They will remain here several days, mainly to purchase goods. The jobbers have full stocks for the fall trade, which is already opened, and that, too, under more favorable auspices than for several years. The presence of these business men from the South will give an impetus to the movement among the wholesale houses, and furnish a good send-off to the fall trade at its commencement.

The presence of two distinct parties of business excursionists from the South was an unusual occurrence. The North Carolinians came by an excursion given by the Seabord and Roanoke Railroad Company, John M. Robinson, president. Those from South Carolina, Georgia and other States are on an excursion given by the Richmond and Danville railroad. The Seaboard and Roanoke excursion was primarily intended to end at Norfolk, but the fact that the other one was destined for Baltimore, and also on account of the solicitation of business men in this city, the North Carolinians, or at least a large number of them, decided to come on here. Excursions of this character are beneficial to all concerned—buyer, seller and transportation company. The Southern buyer, who has of late years purchased goods only through traveling salesmen, can on these trips meet the seller and examine for himself the goods in the hands of the jobbers. Hotels get a good lift in entertaining the visitors, and the turn is not without profit to everybody.

Chapter on Flies.

Boston Transcript.

You can sometimes catch a baseball on a fly.

The Latin name for a certain kind of fly is Tempus fugit.

The fly is an author. See "Flies on Horses."

You can always, at this season of the year, find flies on toast at the restaurants.

Flies are always on hand early in the morning.

You have all seen a kite fly.

Longfellow speaks of a fly as a bird, when he says, "Fly, proud bird of freedom."

Some people employ the blind to keep flies from the room.

You can draw a fly with a drop of molasses better than with a crayon.

The spider is the only creature which invites the fly to his parlor.

Flies are like rivers. They are often dammed.

Stage flies are painted.

A fly is conservative in his reading; he always sticks to his own paper.

There are musical flies. People often speak of that base fly.

Sweet Odors.

Almost every flower that possesses a desirable odor is used in the Unique Perfumes made by Dr. Price. It is from these rich blossoms that Dr. Price's Perfumes obtain their peculiar sweetness and floral character. His Floral Riches, Pet Rose, Lily of the Valley and Evening Violet are the fashionable odors.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See other column.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Infallibly Cure all Skin and Scalp Diseases, Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations

The testimonials of permanent cures of Skin and Scalp Diseases which have been the torture of a lifetime by the Cuticura Remedies, are more wonderful than any methods or remedies known to the medical profession.

Cuticura Resolvent, a powerful Blood Purifier, is the only purifying agent which finds its way into the circulating fluid and thence through the oil and sweat glands to the surface of the skin, thus destroying the poisonous elements with which these vessels have been daily charged. Cuticura, The Great Skin Cure, applied externally, arrests all unnatural or morbid growth which cover the surface of the diseased glands and tubes with Scaly, Itching, and Irritating Humors, speedily it removes them leaving the pores open, healthy, and free from diseased particles of matter.

Thus internally and externally do these great remedies act in conjunction, performing cures that have astonished the most noted physicians of the day.

Salt Rheum for 30 Years

On the Head, Face, and Greater Parts of the Body, Cured.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, I have been a great sufferer with Salt Rheum for 30 years, commencing in my head and face and extending over the greater part of my body. I have taken gallons of medicines for the blood of different kinds and tried good physicians, all of which did me no good, and I came to the conclusion that I could not be cured. But a friend called my attention to an article in the Union on skin diseases, and I got a box of Cuticura. The first application was a great relief and the third took the scales all off, and I felt like a new man. I have used three 50-cent boxes and my skin is smooth and I consider myself entirely cured. Hoping that this may be seen by some one afflicted as I have been (if there is any) is my earnest wish. And I cheerfully recommend it to all persons afflicted with like diseases. Yours truly,

B. WILSON LORD.

AGAWAM, MASS., Sept. 9, 1878.

The Cuticura Soap should be used for cleansing all diseased surfaces, as most soaps are injurious to the skin.

LEPROSY.

A Modern Miracle. Astonishing Results from the use of Cuticura.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—We have a case of Leprosy in our poorhouse which is being cured by your Cuticura remedies The county had employed all of our doctors and had sent to New York for advice, but to no avail.

The patient commenced using the Cuticura and immediately began getting better. He had been confined to his bed for two and one half years. Had not had his clothes on during this time. Last week he dressed for the first time.

When he walked, there would at least one quart of scales come off of him.

This happened every day.

We think it is a wonderful cure.

We do not think he is cured, but he is in a fair way to be cured to say the least.

Yours truly,
DUNNING BROTHERS,
Druggists and Book eliers.

ALLEGAN, MICH., Feb. 11, 1879.

NOTE.—Messrs. Dunning Brothers are thoroughly reliable gentlemen, and were unknown to us prior to the receipt of this letter. We firmly believe this Cuticura will permanently cure this very severe case of Leprosy, as it has done many others.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes containing two and one half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents: 3 cakes, 75 cents.

TUTT'S PILLS

SYMPTOMS OF A TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulder-blade, Fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says: "After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, [illegible], says: "I have had Dyspepsia, Week Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

It is passive suicide to permit the health to be taken undermined, the constitution broken, and the lease of life shortened, by nervous complaints, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache, or intermittent and remittent fevers, when it is a fact established by unquestioned evidences that the Bitters will prevent and remove these evils. All the symptoms of lassitude and general debility speedily vanish when this invigorant is given a trial.

For sale by Druggists and respectable Dealers generally.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.

For the South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather in southern portions with occasional rain and winds mostly northeasterly; stationary temperature and barometer.

Index to New Advertisements.

W. J. HICKS.—Lost.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Fine weather.

——Go to church to-day.

——Yesterday's traffic was good.

——All the churches are open to-day.

——Wake Court adjourned yesterday.

Judge Settle left for the West last evening.

——Merchants are now buying their fall stocks.

——Most of our schools and colleges opens to-morrow.

——Mr. A. M. McPheeters is reported to be on the mend.

——The capitol square is being beautified and cleansed.

——Wake county Superior Court adjourned yesterday.

——Merchants are as happy as a lark and as busy as a bee.

——Revenue collections yesterday, amounted to $2,314.23

——Jones street, near its eastern terminus, needs attention.

——Raleigh has fourteen churches, ten white and four colored.

——Mr. R. S. Wynne returned yesterday from a Western trip.

——General R. F. Hoke, of this city, was in Charlotte yesterday.

——Rev. Dr. Burkhead preaches in the Person Street Methodist Church to-night.

——A big revival is going on at Selma, and the woods is alive with bright bonfires.

——Telephones will be introduced in Charlotte after they have finished those in Raleigh.

——Regular monthly meeting of the Rescue Company to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

——The yard in rear of the new U. S. post office and court house is being ploughed.

——The imprint of a petrified snake may be seen on a stone of the capitol, on the western side.

——A collision on Wilmington street yesterday resulted in a slight injury to one of the drags.

——Fall is coming and the usual number of wood carts may be seen on Wilmington street.

——Bagging and ties have suddenly come to light, and for the next thirty days will have a lively existence.

——Colonel Walter Clark has gone to Arkansas on professional business, and will be absent about two weeks.

——Mr. W. Garl Brown, the portrait painter, and well known in this city, is now a resident of Washington, D. C.

——A large lot of unstamped tobacco and manufacturing apparatus were seized and sold by the collector yesterday.

——Captain J. J. Thomas has handsomely fitted up and furnished very comfortably a set of offices in his new store.

——Judge Seymour passed through the city yesterday en route to Fayetteville. He presides over Cumberland Court.

——A splendid fall trade is expected by all the merchants the writer saw yesterday. There is a better time coming.

——Rev. Dr. Skinner will be formally installed as pastor of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to-night at 8 o'clock.

——Raleigh has excellent facilities for a tobacco market. A start in that direction would increase the town's growth wonderfully.

——The Baptist Grove is being put in order for the storage of cotton. If a new fence was put up it would improve its looks considerably.

——Mr. F. H. Bain has bought the interest of Mr. Freeman in the Gregory House, Goldsboro, and will hereafter conduct the house alone.

——A large lot of cotton bagging is being hauled from the depot to the business houses of our merchants preparatory to the opening of the cotton trade.

——There was an old colored woman in town yesterday who said she was ninety-seven years of age, and indeed she looked as though her story was true.

——There will be a grand excursion to Cincinnati on the 9th of September. This excursion will afford a splendid opportunity to visit the great west at a small cost.

——It is reported as a fact that there is a quantity of dynamite buried in the northeast end of the capitol square, hidden there by Wheeler's cavalry during the war.

——The National Hotel is growing daily in the estimation of the traveling public. Messrs. Street & Sons are old hotelists and understand their business.

——Raleigh can boast of ten large schools and academies, six of which are white and four colored. Besides these there are some eight or ten smaller schools.

——Rev. John W. Primrose, of Warren county, will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church this morning at 11 o'clock, and this evening at 8 o'clock.

——Regular meeting of the Chemicals on Monday night. Let every member present himself as business of importance will be transacted. By order of foreman.

——The Raleigh Male Academy conducted by Messrs. Fray & Morson opens its fall session to-morrow. It is an excellent institution and well deserves the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh.

——Rand & Barbee Brothers are receiving large additions to their stock daily. Three car loads, from New York, were unloaded at the North Carolina Railroad depot yesterday, and every package was for this firm.

——Judge Avery leaves to-day for his home in Morganton. He has made a fine impression on the bar of this city, and many compliments have been paid him for the ability and impartiality with which he has conducted the deliberations of the Court.

——The pastors of the various churches are respectfully requested to send in every Saturday morning, any changes that may occur in their pulpits: if there will be service at both the usual hours, and the text of their sermons. Please be regular and punctual.

——The County Commissioners will meet on Monday (to-morrow). This will be a "regular" meeting, at which school business, among other matters, will be attended to. Parties having bills against the county will, in presenting them, have such bills properly authenticated.

——Mr. I. Leopold yesterday opened his new tobacco and cigar store at Lumsden's old stand. He is the manufacturer of the brands, "Little Maimee," "Raleigh Belle" and "Dorethea" (pony brand), a five cent cigar. Mr. Leopold has made quite a reputation in this place as a cigar maker and his cigars are as good as ever. Give him a call when you want a good smoke.

——Messrs. Christophers & Sorrell are thoroughly installed in their new quarters on Wilmington street, opposite the market house. They have a capacious store room, refitted and renovated in handsome style, and have it well filled with a large and complete stock of groceries for the wholesale and retail trade. They are active and reliable young men, and have earned a fine reputation and a large and profitable trade.

——Col. Jno. L. Brown, of Charlotte, is in the city, and will remain at the Yarboro House till Monday. He is just returning from a trip to Old Point, and while stopping at Portsmouth he paid a visit to the Navy Yard where he was presented by a friend with a handsome cane made from the old Merrimac of war times. The handle is made from an iron ball in the old ship and is handsomely plated. It is ingeniously wrought into a small cannon and is novel in appearance.

——Mr. Mm. Woollcott, of the widely known Woollcotts Open Front, has just returned from an extended visit to relatives near Redbank, N. J. He stopped over in New York City to make his fall purchases, and states that the northern merchants generally are very hopeful of a large fall trade. Cotton factories are over-run with orders, and business generally is better than it has been for five years. Mr. Woollcott thinks the business of Raleigh will be greater this fall than ever.

——Mr. J. C. S. Lumsden, the veteran hardware merchant, is now occupying the store house formerly used by Mr. Phil. Thiem. Mr. Lumsden is one of the oldest hardware dealers in the city, and always carries a large and well assorted stock. He has been engaged in business in or near Raleigh for the past twenty years and has worked himself up from the bottom round. He has served frequently and faithfully in the councils of the Board of Aldermen of this city and his name has been mentioned in connection with the mayoralty of the city. In the absence of the mayor on several occasions he has been designated in his place. Mr. Lumsden has demonstrated the full meaning of the words pluck and energy, and is beginning to reap the reward of his early labors.

School Books Again.

Messrs. Alfred Williams & Company are now receiving their fall stock of School Books, and it is largely increased over that of any previous year. They publish an annual catalogue and their present one shows many important reductions in retail prices of all School Books. Correspondence invited from teachers and dealers.

A Curious Coin.

One day last week as Mr. Llewellyn, steward at the Yarborough, was emptying a bag of coffee, he found in the bottom of the sack a copper coin about the size of a halfpenny bearing on the obverse side a shield embracing a lion rampant, surmounted with a crown. On the reverse is a V, the arms encircled with the letters o c, and underneath the date, 1735. There is nothing to indicate its nationality, but it is probable that it is of Portuguese origin.

Leopold's Cigaranisms.

In a rapt and dreamy quietude I sit,
Leisurely puffing a "Leopold" cigar,
When adown the sunbeam with a noiseless tread,
A throng of elves come tripping from afar;
Half consciously the fairies I invoke,
To paint me pictures in the tinted smoke. tf

Leopold Redivivus.

Leopold has opened Lumsden's old stand for a retail cigar palace, where you will obtain the imperial smoker of the season. tf

Leopold's "Dorethea" (Pony brand) is of clear Havana stock, and costs 5 cents. tf

"Give me a cot in the valley I love,
And a "Pony" cigar at Leopold's."

The "Dorethea" is the brand of whiffs which any one may enjoy either in a cot or palace.

I bring the weed from o'er the sea,
To make Raleigh Belle and Little Maimee.

Ho for the Races.

Leopold's "Ponies" will run faster into the affections of gentlemen smokers of Raleigh than any other brand extant.

A Card.

All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Weather Probabilities.

Cold, with high winds and rain. Exposure to this weather is sure to produce colds and kindred diseases; and the best remedy we know of is Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. Always keep it in the house, and you will be on the safe side.

Lemon.

It is from the rind of the Messina lemon that Dr. Price prepares his special Flavoring Extract of Lemon. While other Lemon Extracts in a little time have the taste and odor of turpentine, Dr. Price's for any length of time retains its intense lemony taste.

The Earl of Mayfield is the title of a new and powerful Novel, by a distinguished American author, now in press and to be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. The opening scenes are laid in Louisiana during the early days of the Rebellion, the hero is a rich planter, and the heroine is a lovely example of pure womanhood. The old English home is very likely a correct photograph of an ideal house, as many similar ones exist in that identical locality. It has the advantage of having but few characters, with good descriptions, excellent dialogues, well sustained interest, and contains all the elements of a successful novel, the whole being well told, within the limits of probability, and it will no doubt prove to be a great success. It will be issued in uniform style with the works of Mrs. Southworth in a large duodecimo volume of 500 pages, bound in velvet cloth, black and gold, price $1,50.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Be wise and happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879.—The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDILL, Esq., LYNCHBURG, Va.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," of the Seven Springs, in Washington county, Va., in relation to its efficacy for Liver Diseases, would you have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water;" also, a description of the symptoms and such other information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long-time sufferer with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,
WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Liver case" which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her 30th year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver Disease for 30 years, sometimes almost dying with pains in the back, breast, and heaviness of the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Mass" for her, and very soon after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, so old, seemingly in as good health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfactory, I am, very truly, A. WADDILL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some blood medicine like Rosadalis, the great Southern Remedy, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

The comforts of hotel life in paying a visit to the great American metropolis cannot be over-estimated. The "St. Nicholas" has peculiar claims on the public attention, for it has become one of the historic institutions of the city, and is managed with a liberality and knowledge which make its cuisiniere the delight of the bon vivant, its apartments admirably furnished and fitted, and all its conveniences competent to meet the most exacting tastes. Its standard of excellence is higher than ever.

An old physician retired from practice had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionrry the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. Sent by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Shearar, 189 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y. Wcow7m.

A GOOD PLAN

Anybody can learn to make money rapidly operating in stocks, by the "Two Unerring Rules for Success," in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular. The combination method, which this firm has made so successful, enables people with large or small means to reap all the benefits of largest capital and best skill. Thousands of orders, in various sums, are pooled into one vast amount and co-operated as a mighty whole, thus securing to each shareholder all the advantages of the largest operator. Immense profits are divided monthly. Any amount, from $5 to $5,000, or more, can be used successfully. N Y Baptist Weekly, September 26th, 1878, says, "By the combination system $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent.; $50 pays $350, or 7 per cent.; $100 makes $1,000, or 10 per cent. on the stock, during the month, according to the market." Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, June 29th: "The combination method of operating stocks is the most successful ever adopted." New York Independent, Sept. 12th: "The combination system is founded upon correct business principles, and no person need be without an income while it is kept working by Messrs. Lawrence & Co." Brooklyn Journal, April 29th: "Our editor made a net profit of $101.25 from $20 in one of Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combination." New circular (mailed free) explains everything. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES of the nineteenth century, and one that takes equal rank with the invention of the telephone, the electric light and other scientific marvels of the age, is that of Henry's Carbolic Salve.

This Compound possesses the most remarkable Healing Properties of any known agent employed for the purpose of curing SORES, WOUNDS, CUTS, BRUISES, Inflamed and abraded surfaces, and for ALL SKIN DISEASES.

Its cleansing properties remove all impurities that hinder the formation of healthy flesh, and the work of cure goes on to completion with most Wonderful Rapidity. Let no family be without a box of it in the house. Physicians extol its virtues; and the thousands who have used it unite in recommending it. Beware of Counterfeits.
